exotic mixed flowers

product description

Handcrafted by Artisans in China, Choi Time's Exotic Mixed flowering tea bulbs are hand picked and made from the finest quality white needle green tea leaves, which have been naturally scented with thousands of jasmine blossoms in the drying process then individually hand woven with an exotic flower which provides further health benefits. A pick and mix from a selection of over fifty varieties, some flowers include; jasmine, orange lily, globe amaranth, osmanthus, dandelions...

brewing instructions

Pour hot water 82C to 88C (180F to 190F) into your cup or pot. Then simply drop one bulb into the hot water and watch the bud unfurl into a beautiful flower. Good for at least 5-12 infusions.

unique properties

Visual theatre in your cup our Exotic Mixed flowers provide the ultimate tea experience. Individual flowers such as the Orange Lily - helps to nourish the lungs, repose the mind and beautify the skin. Globe Amaranth - beneficial for the recovery of asthma, bronchitis and coughs. Marigold - aids in improving digestion, beautifying the face & prolonging life. Chrysanthemum - known for its cooling properties that help to decrease body heat. It detoxifies the blood, helps with sinus congestion, high blood pressure, and can also calm the nerves.
